II. CASVA PREDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS FOR HISTORIANS OF AMERICAN ART TO TRAVEL ABROAD

Applications due February 15, 2008 for the period June 2008 through May 2009

2 nominations per department (for a total of six fellowships per year)

The Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts offers up to six fellowships to doctoral students in art history who are studying aspects of art and architecture of the United States, including native and pre-Revolutionary America. This fellowship is for a period of six to eight weeks of continuous travel abroad in areas such as Africa, Asia, or South America, as well as Europe, to sites of historical and cultural interest, including museums, exhibitions, collections, and monuments. The travel fellowship is intended to encourage a breadth of art-historical experience beyond the candidate's major field, not for the advancement of a dissertation. Preference will be accorded to those who have had little opportunity for professional travel abroad. The amount of the award is dependent on the travel plan, with a maximum of $4,500. A narrative report at the conclusion of the travel period is required. Individuals currently affiliated with the National Gallery of Art are not eligible for this fellowship.

VIII. SAMUEL H. KRESS FOUNDATION DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIP OF THE SOCIETY OF ARCHITECTURAL HISTORIANS

The 2008 Award--$15,000

In a joint program with the Samuel H. Kress Foundation, the Society of Architectural Historians is pleased to present, for the first time in the history of the Society, the creation of a new dissertation fellowship. The fellowship will support preparation of a dissertation focusing on the history of architecture and the built environment in Europe from ancient times through 1800. The subject area can include architectural, interior and landscape design, preservation and urban planning in Europe. The Samuel H. Kress Foundation Dissertation Fellowship of the Society of Architectural Historians is designed to assist during a critical time in the career development of graduate students in architectural history. The fellowship will support travel and research and will recognize important contributions to knowledge both in uncovering new sources and/or in proffering innovative research and framing of issues.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIPS

See: <http://www.tgs.northwestern.edu/financialaid/fellowshipsandscholarships/fellowshipsandgrants/>

ALUMNAE DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIPS

The Alumnae Dissertation Fellowship provides funding for the final dissertation write-up year to women who show promise of achieving distinction in their fields of scholarship. The goal is to assist outstanding women who will make professional contributions to the community and bring credit to Northwestern. Preference will be given to applicants who show evidence of financial need and who have had to interrupt their education.

No limit on number of candidates department may nominate

Deadline: Friday, November 30, 2007

DYF FELLOWSHIPS

The Dissertation Year Fellowship is intended to fund PhD students in selected disciplines during the final dissertation write-up year.

Department may nominate up to four candidates

Deadline: Friday February 1, 2008

GRADUATE SCHOOL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP (RF)

The Graduate School Research Fellowship is intended to fund PhD students in selected disciplines for field/archive work necessary for their dissertation. The fellowships are meant to cover the intermediate period of research between course work and the actual dissertation writing.

PRESIDENTIAL FELLOWSHIP

24-month award; Art History may nominate one candidate

The Presidential Fellowship is funded by the President of the University and awarded by The Graduate School. This highly competitive award is the most prestigious fellowship awarded by Northwestern. The fellowship will be awarded to candidates who combine outstanding intellectual or creative ability with the capacity to play an active part in the life of the Society of Fellows. Recipients of the Presidential Fellowship become part of Northwestern University's Society of Fellows. The Society of Fellows meets twice per quarter and enables stellar students from across the university to have interdisciplinary interactions with their peers in other fields. The goal is to create future leaders who are enthusiastic and literate about the broad scholarship of the university. All Presidential Fellows must participate in the Society of Fellows functions; an exception is made for students not in residence at the time of Society meetings. Applications are by nomination only.

Deadline: Friday October 19, 2007

* GRADUATE RESEARCH GRANTS do not require departmental nomination (The Graduate Research Grant (GRG) is intended to help PhD and MFA students in historically underfunded disciplines meet expenses related to scholarly research and creative endeavors. The maximum award amount is $3,000. Awards are for a twelve-month period.

At the time of application for a Graduate Research Grant, the student must have completed 3 quarters of full-time full tuition registration toward the PhD or MFA degree in The Graduate School. Students who are on an extension of the deadline for the completion of all PhD or MFA requirements are not eligible for a Graduate Research Grant. A student may receive only one grant under this program during his or her graduate career at Northwestern. Awards will not be granted for retroactive payments. Applicants who have applied before and have not received an award may apply again.

Department approval: Electronic submission of an application by the designated department or program person (see below) constitutes confirmation that the application has been vetted and endorsed by the department or program.

Deadline and Notification dates: Grants are awarded three times during the academic year. Deadlines for receipt of proposals are noon on October 5, January 4, and April 4. Awards will be announced within 2 months of each deadline.

WEINBERG DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIP

Departmental nominations for the Weinberg Dissertation Research Fellowships (WDRF) are due April 1 2007. The fellowships are for students who will be registered for 599, 503 during the academic year 2007-2008, and who will be conducting research for their dissertation, writing a dissertation, or both, during that year. This fellowship is the same as the Weinberg Dean's Dissertation Fellowship awarded in previous years but has been renamed to highlight the donor and the possibility of using it for dissertation research.

Students who have received Graduate School Dissertation Year Fellowships, Research

Fellowships or Alumnae Fellowships for 2007-2008, or who will hold Presidential Fellowships in 2007-2008, are not eligible. If not ineligible under the terms of the preceding paragraph, students who currently hold Graduate Research Fellowships or Alumnae Fellowships are eligible for nomination.
