

Workshop on Kant's Philosophy of Mathematics
University of Illinois at Chicago

Sunday, September 25th, 2011

UIC Campus, Student Center East, Room 329

This informal workshop will focus on some recent work on Kant's Philosophy of Mathematics. It will have a workshop format; it is assumed that the papers have been read beforehand and after a few preliminary comments, we will enter directly into discussion. Please contact Daniel Sutherland at sutherla@uic.edu if you plan to attend and would like the papers.
