

Imagining the Other in the Middle East: Jewish and Arab/Muslim Narratives

An International Conference Hosted by:

Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences:

The Crown Family Center for Jewish Studies

In cooperation with:

Tel Aviv University: The Moshe Dayan Centre for Middle Eastern and African Studies

The Chicago Council on Foreign Relations

Wednesday and Thursday
April 9 - 10, 2003

WEDNESDAY SESSIONS

Scott Hall Room 212

601 University Place

- 1:00 pm Jews and Muslims:
Perceptions of the Other in Literary and Oral Narratives
- 3:30 pm The Narrative of 1948
- 7:30 pm KEYNOTE ADDRESS

HENRY BIENEN

“Leadership and Crises in the Middle East”

Fisk Hall Room 217

1845 Sheridan Road

Evanston, IL

Conference Participants

Ambassador Moshe Arens, Former Israel Defense Minister

Henry Bienen, President, Northwestern University

Ross Brann, Cornell University

William M. Brinner, University of California, Berkeley

Ghassan al-Khatib, Minister of Labor, Palestinian Authority

Jacob Lassner, Northwestern University

Rudi Lindner, University of Michigan

Meir Litvak, Tel-Aviv University, Moshe Dayan Centre

Aaron Miller, Seeds of Peace

Muhammad Muslih, Long Island University

Ambassador Itamar Rabinovich, President, Tel-Aviv University

Elie Rekhess, Tel-Aviv University, Northwestern University

Emile Sahliyeh, North Texas University

Gilead Sher, Former Israel Negotiator

Khalil Shikaki, Palestinian Center for Policy and Survey Research

Mohammad K. Shiyyab, Major General (Ret.), Jordan Armed Forces

Asher Susser, Tel Aviv University, Moshe Dayan Centre

Ilan Troen, Ben Gurion University

THURSDAY SESSIONS

Scott Hall Room 212

- 9:30 am The Arab Other:
Jewish-Arab Relations in Israel
- 1:30 pm Negotiating with the Other: A Discussion
- 3:45 pm Narratives of a Possible Future

Allan E. Harris Memorial Conference

This conference is made possible through a grant from the Perlman Family Foundation.

RSVP's are required, as seating is limited.

RSVP by email to: jewish-studies@northwestern.edu

For more information, visit the Conference website at :

www.wcas.northwestern.edu/jewish-studies/imagining