

SPRING QUARTER 2009 EVENTS:

Northwestern's Latino Studies Program Celebrates its Founding:

Claiming Space: Moral Economy in Latino Chicago
5 PM, Tuesday, April 14, 2009, McCormick Tribune Forum, 1870 Campus Drive

The Latin American and Caribbean Studies Colloquium Series presents:

Carlos Freytes
Northwestern University

"Explaining Divergent Paths Out of Fixed Exchange Rate Regimes: Federalism and Governance in Brazil and Argentina in the late '90s"

4 PM, Wednesday, April 15, 2009
Buffett Center Conference Room, 1902 Sheridan Road

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese's Latin American Modernities Series presents:

Richard Rosa
Duke University

"Of Swiss Watches and Slaves: Narrative and Political Economy in Cirilo Villaverde's Cecilia Valdes"

5 PM, Thursday, April 16, 2009
Kresge 2-301

The American Bar Foundation Presents:

Brodwyn Fischer
Northwestern University

"Illegality and Compromise in Brazil's Legal Order"

12 PM, Wednesday, April 29, 2009
ABF Seminar Room, Woods Conference Center, 750 N Lake Shore Drive, 4th Floor

The Newberry Library Seminar in Latin American History presents:

Dain Borges
University of Chicago

"The Brazilian System: The Rise and Fall of the Institutional Order of the Nineteenth Century"

May 8, 2009, 3 PM, Newberry Library

The Latin American and Caribbean Studies Colloquium Series presents:

Jason Seawright
Northwestern University

"The Psychology of Party-System Collapse in Peru and Venezuela: How Voters' Affect Helps Explain the Rise of Hugo Chavez and Alberto Fujimori"

4 PM, Wednesday, May 13, 2009
Buffett Center Conference Room, 1902 Sheridan Road