

Northwestern University: Latin American and Caribbean Studies Minor Requirements

Name: _____ Class of: _____ Ent. NU: _____

Date Minor Declared: _____ Phone: _____ Email: _____

1) Prerequisite: Effective reading knowledge of Spanish, Portuguese, or another language spoken in region demonstrated by:

AP 5 score: _____ Language placement exam: _____ Director Approval: _____

2) 8 total Courses (4 core courses and 4 electives)

Focus	Course Number/Title	Instructor	Quarter	Grade
Anthropology
History
Political Science
Spanish Dept. Literature
Elective (Latinos in the U.S)
Elective
Elective
Elective

3) 4 core courses: Students must take at least one course each in the following departments: Anthropology, History, Political Science and Spanish. Normally, students select classes from the following list to fulfill their core course requirements. Alternatives and exceptions must be approved by the program director.

Anthropology: Anthro 390*, 490*

History: Hist 365, 366, 369

Political Science: Poli Sci 353, 356

Literature: Spanish 260*, 261*, 361*, 390*, 395*

4) 4 elective courses: 4 electives must be chosen dealing with the culture, history, literature, or politics of Latin America and the Caribbean. Students may select classes from the following suggested electives. We strongly recommend that one of these electives be on Latinos in the United States. Alternatives and exceptions must be approved by the program director.

African American Studies: Af Am St 245, 345, 381

Anthropology: Anthro 328*, 368*, 330*, 390*

Art History: Art Hist 228, 235

French: French 365

History: History 291*, 365*, 366*, 367*, 368-1,2*, 369*, 391* or 392*

Political Science: Poli Sci 353*, 356*, 390*

Spanish: Spanish 211, 230, 231, 260, 261, 301, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 361, 380, 390*, 395

Latinos in the U.S: Latin Am 251, 351, 389, 396

5) Only three courses may double-count with major.

* When relevant to Latin America, the Caribbean, and/or U.S. Latinos