

Latin American and Caribbean Studies Events- Fall 2010

Wednesday, October 13th, 4pm

LACS Colloquium Series- Jennifer Cyr (PhD Candidate, Northwestern): "Returning from the Dead? The Fates of Political Parties in Peru, Venezuela, and Bolivia."

Location: Buffett Center, 1902 Sheridan Road

Wednesday, October 27th, 4pm

LACS Colloquium Series- Carlos de la Torre (John Heath Visiting Professor of Social Studies, Grinnell College, Professor Department of Political Studies FLASCO Ecuador): "The contested meanings of democracy and populism in Venezuela and Ecuador."

Location: Buffett Center, 1902 Sheridan Road

Friday, November 5th, 2:30pm

Newberry Library Seminar- Michelle McKinley (Asst. Professor at the University of Oregon School of Law): "Such Unsightly Unions Could Never Result in 'Holy Matrimony': Mixed-Status Marriages in Seventeenth Century Colonial Lima."

Location: Newberry Library

Co-sponsored by LACS, the History Department at UIC, the Humanities Department at IIT, and the Center for Latin American Studies at University of Chicago

Wednesday, November 10th, 4pm

LACS Colloquium Series- Sarah Osten (Mellon Postdoctoral Fellow in LACS, Northwestern): "Peace by Institutions: The Rise of Political Parties and the Making of the Modern Mexican State, 1920-1928."

Location: Buffett Center, 1902 Sheridan Road

Thursday, November 18th

Sidney Chalhoub (Universidade Estadual de Campinas): talk on the precariousness of Afro-Brazilian freedom in 19th Century Brazil

Location: TBA

Sponsored by LACS

Friday, December 10th, 2:30pm

Newberry Library Seminar- Michael Gonzales (Director, Center for Latino and Latin American Studies, Distinguished Research Professor, History, Northern Illinois University): "Imperial Memories and Modern Vistas: Spain and Argentina in the Centennial Celebration of Independence in Buenos Aires, May, 1910."

Location: Newberry Library

Co-sponsored by LACS, the History Department at UIC, the Humanities Department at IIT, and the Center for Latin American Studies at University of Chicago