

Latin American and Caribbean Studies Events- Spring 2011

Wednesday, April 20th, 4pm

LACS Colloquium Series- Mariano Tommasi (Universidad San Andres and Columbia University): "The Politics of Federalism in Argentina and its Implications for Governance and Accountability"

Location: Buffett Center, 1902 Sheridan Road

Friday, April 22nd, 3pm

Katherine Hite (Vassar College): "Politics and the Art of Commemoration: Memorials to Struggle in Latin America and Spain"

Location: Buffett Center, 1902 Sheridan Road

Co-sponsored by Latin American and Caribbean Studies Graduate Student Group (LAGS) and Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Friday, May 6th, 3pm

Omar Encarnación (Bard College): "Sex and the State. Gay Rights Politics in Argentina and Brazil"

Location: Buffett Center, 1902 Sheridan Road

Co-sponsored by Latin American and Caribbean Studies Graduate Student Group (LAGS) and Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Friday, May 27th, TBA

Dept of Spanish and Portuguese, LACS, Dept of Philosophy, The Kaplan Institute sponsored one-day workshop celebrating the translation and publication of:

"Between Conformity and Resistance: Essays on Brazilian Politics, Culture and the State" by Marilena Chauí

Speakers include Marilena Chauí (Universidade de Sao Paulo), Maité Conde (King's Collage, London), Nelson Maldonado-Torres (Rutgers University)

Location: TBA